Proceedings in the Lower Aſſembly on Tueſday laſt.

THE report from the ſelect and ſecret committee was brought by Mr. Ellis, and moved by him to lie upon the table. The heads of it were read by the clerk.

Mr. Burke got up, and in a very pleaſant ſtile ſeemed to examine the nature of their appointment, and was very facetious about the manner in which they had proceeded; carefully attending that buſineſs from day to day with the greateſt attention; the room in which they held their committee almoſt filled with the volumes of the Journals, and other parliamentary proceedings for ages back; meſſengers, porters, and all other perſons that could give any information called before them; and yet after all this ſerious inquiry, they had not even got at the real name of J. Miller, on whoſe account the buſineſs was firſt occaſioned. He expreſſed himſelf happy to find that the committee had done no miſchief by taking any violent methods, and commended their prudence for ſo innocent a report.

Mr. Whitworth ſaid, he roſe, for one, to return his thanks to the gentlemen of the ſelect committee. That he had a motion in his hand, which he made no doubt the aſſembly would adopt. It was, that the thanks of this aſſembly be given to the gentlemen of the ſelect committee, appointed on the 27th of March, to examine into the cauſe of diſobedience of the orders of the aſſembly, &c. for the efficacious and judicious manner which they had choſen to enforce a due obedience to their orders and authority, and for adviſing them to apprehend J. Miller, and take him into the cuſtody of the ſerjeant at arms. He introduced his motion with that ſort of irony which might be taken either as a grave and ſerious compliment to the ſelect committee, or the contrary. He ſaid, the aſſembly could not but be ſenſible how much they were obliged to thoſe gentlemen for the great pains which they had taken in obedience to their orders, having compiled near a large folio volume of precedents, ſelected from the journals; and many pages of the examination of the meſſengers, relative to the diſobedience ſhewn to their orders in a late tranſaction; and from all this care and trouble which had been taken, he hoped that the aſſembly would never have any further occaſion to complain of a want of due reſpect and obedience to their authority: That he was glad to find the end of all that labour which the committee had taken, was productive of nothing more in their report, in order to enforce the authority of the aſſembly for the future, than the advice given to apprehend J. Miller. He made uſe of a Latin phraſe, Parturiunt montes, naſcetur ridiculus mus. He ſaid, he approved highly of this report, being ſo innocent a one, and productive of no further violent bad conſequences; for that now the only thing that remained was, how the aſſembly is to apprehend J. Miller. However, continued he, they ought to be at leaſt obliged to the committee for ſuch a piece of important advice; he therefore moved the thanks of the aſſembly.

Sir George Saville ſaid he was very ſerious about this report, and wiſhed not to turn it into ridicule: He was at firſt afraid, that as the committee were formed from the Treaſury liſts ſent about, they might have reſolved upon ſome violent outrageous meaſures, which would have created a further diſobedience to the authority of this aſſembly, and ſtill thrown it into greater contempt; but was glad to ſee, that the reſult of the inquiry was no more than the advice to apprehend J. Miller, which the aſſembly were not ſtartled or frighted at, as they knew of that matter before.

Lord North ſaid, that he did not know what to underſtand from the motion, as it was made and introduced in ſo ludicrous a manner. He thought the committee deſerved thanks; and had it been introduced by the gentleman who moved in a grave manner, he did not know but he might have conſented to it; but as it was not treated by him in a ſerious way, he therefore moved to adjourn.

Mr. Sawbridge ſaid, that the committee had been formed by the Treaſury liſts for iniquitous purpoſes, but he was glad to find that their intended appointment was fruſtrated. He was called to order by Mr. Charles Fox for ſaying that an act of that aſſembly, which the appointment of the committee was, was an act of the Treaſury for iniquitous purpoſes.

The Chairman then interfered, and ſaid, that, to be ſure, it was diſorderly in any member to call an act of that aſſembly an act of the Treaſury, but that he might argue that it was virtually, ſubſtantially, and really ſo, was not diſorderly. Mr. Sawbridge then got up again and ſaid, "Why, then, I argue that the committee was appointed from the liſts ſent about by the Treaſury for iniquitous and wicked purpoſes (here the aſſembly laughed much). Take notice that I only ſay by way of argument, that it was virtually, ſubſtantially, and really ſo."

Three or four more gentlemen ſpoke in the debate, and the aſſembly having had the firſt queſtion near four hours, they divided on the queſtion for the adjournment. For it, 584 againſt it, 22.

They write from [illegible] that ſome extraordinary encampments have been [illegible] by the Moors in the neighbourhood of Ceuta, on the eaſt.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Berlin to his friend in London, dated April 27.

"I have reaſon to think that the cloud gathering in Germany will not diſturb the preſent peace of the Empire. My barometer is the actual ſtate of ſecurity and tranquility in which the King of Pruſſia remains, for from the knowledge I have of that Prince's temper and way of acting, I have reaſon to think, that if he entertained but the remoteſt ſuſpicion of any hoſtile intention againſt him, or dangerous conſequence to his natural ally Ruſſia, from the preſent armaments of the Houſe of Auſtria, he would not be ſo inactive, and appear ſo unconcerned. Beſides, the good underſtanding which apparently ſubſiſts at this moment, betwixt him and the Court of Vienna, confirms me the more in this opinion, and induces me to believe that he is no ſtranger to the preſent views and deſigns of that power which tend, it is ſaid, with the mutual conſent of the Courts of Berlin and Peterſburgh, to reſtore tranquility to Poland, and to oblige the Turks to a peace with Ruſſia, who, it is aſſured, has declared her inclination to the Court of Vienna, to treat with the Porte on terms ſo moderate and equitable, as gave the greateſt ſatisfaction to the Auſtrian Court. A very ſhort time, however, will ſoon diſcover the end and intention of the preſent immenſe warlike preparations of the Houſe of Auſtria, with regard to which the greateſt ſecrecy is obſerved at Vienna."

MAY 22. The Lord-Mayor finding himself seized yesterday morning with a slight fit of the gout, by the advice of his friends, set out for his house at Dulwich, to spend a few days there for the recovery of his health, and Sir William Stephenson sat at the Mansion-house in his room.

Yesterday Mr. Alderman Oliver visited Earl Temple, at his house in Pall-Mall, and afterwards paid his respects to other Noblemen, &c.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated May 3.

"If some letters from Madrid may be relied on, there seems to be a coldness between the Courts of Madrid and Versailles, occasioned, it is said, by the King of Spain having been informed, that the French King has some thoughts of re-establishing the Jesuits within his dominions; a step which hath so much affected the Spanish Monarch, that he hath sent orders to his Ambassador, resident at Paris, to declare to the Court of Versailles, that if it should take the resolution of re-establishing that society in its states, at a time when affairs are in so good a train to annihilate totally that pernicious society, by whose destructive machinations, France, preferable to all other kingdoms, hath too severely suffered, his Catholic Majesty will find himself obliged to break the treaty, known by the name of the family compact, and to declare that he will, no longer, in any manner, be bound by it, also that he will recall his Ambassador from Paris. If this is true, as these letters assures us it is, his most Christian Majesty will reconsider this matter, before he determines to recall the disciples of Loyala into his kingdom."

The malcontents of Corsica keep the French in constant alarm, frequently way-laying and killing any parties they are able to over-power. To reconcile those islanders to their new yoke, the French King has resolved to appoint the principal families to offices of trust, jointly with his natural-born subjects.

Sir Fletcher Norton had a grand levee at his house on Wednesday evening, where the mobility and others that paraded the streets that evening repaired, and testified their respects by breaking most of the windows.

The mob on Wednesday night broke a great number of windows in the Strand, and did not leave a whole pane in Somerset-house coffee-room.

The reason assigned for breaking open the iron gates at Serjeant's-Inn, is, that the populace got intelligence that the Recorder of London, who lives there, had given directions to have the gates shut much sooner than usual, to prevent any illuminations in the Inn.

Wednesday night a desperate fray happened between the mob and a party of chairmen, in St. James's square, when two of the former, it is said, were killed on the spot, and several on both sides dangerously wounded.

When the Lord-Mayor came out of the Tower, he gave ten guineas to the Warders, as a compliment for the civility they shewed to him and his friends whilst he was under confinement.

They write from Birmingham, that 15,000 muskets, with bayonets and cartouch boxes, were sent from thence in waggons, to be shipped at Bristol for St. Petersburgh, on the Empress's account the 24th ult.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, May 5.

"Letters just received from Paris mention, that it was never more necessary for persons there to devote themselves to the God of silence than at this time. Three persons who now probably regret not having kept their lips sealed, were lately arrested and conducted to prison as they were coming out of the Palace. Two others met with the same fate as they were quitting the Chatelet."

Last Wednesday night the mob assembled before Lord North's house in Downing-street, and broke several of the windows; likewise the sun light, and the two lamps over the door.

Sir Fletcher Norton came home not above half an hour before the mob assembled in his court-yard; they threw stones so fast at the windows, that the family were obliged to remain all the time in the back apartments.

A gentleman sent a complimentary card yesterday morning to Sir Fletcher Norton, desiring to know how he did after the riot, to which he is said to have returned for answer, "That he was very easy, for he had not one pane left."

This morning their Majesties came from Richmond to the Queen's Palace, where Lord Rochford attended to deliver an express, which arrived last night in haste from the Hague.

The sudden change of affairs in Lisbon, in favour of the English traders, we are assured was effected by a remonstrance sent from our court by Capt. Belfour in the Venus frigate.

It is a fact, that the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor received yesterday a letter highly approving his conduct with respect to the Printers, from a person in a distinguished office at court.

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, since his arrival at the Mansion-House, has received upwards of 200 cards of congratulation from the minority on his releasement from the Tower; to all which his Lordship returned suitable answers.

It is said the Earl of Sandwich, accompanied by the other commissioners of the Admiralty, intend to survey Milford Haven, in Pembrokeshire, previous to some grand naval magazines, and a dock yard to be erected there.

It is said that the Lords of the Admiralty have given strict orders, for no stranger whatever to be admitted into the dock yards of this kingdom in future; and centinels are to be placed at the waterside to prevent any one landing, except such as belong to the yards.

Orders are given from the Board of Ordnance, for shipping 300 tons of ship cannon at Woolwhich for the island of Grenada.

It is reported at the West end of the town, that certain important secrets relative to the Chevalier D'Eon, and his sudden disappearance, have at last come to light.

The Earl of Litchfield, Chancellor of the University of Oxford, now lies dangerously ill.

A Colony of Germans, having previously obtained the Emperor's leave, are arrived at Corsica, to cultivate an uninhabited spot in that island.

The Emperor of Germany is grown so jealous of the discipline and other military regulations introduced among his troops, that he will not permit even the most experienced General in his army to review them, except in his own presence; nay, even on the common field days, he rises very early in the morning, to be present at the exercise of the battalions.

The King of Denmark has contracted with some of our Merchants to build him six ships to carry 36 guns each, after the plan of our frigates.

In the course of the late negotiation for a truce between the Turks and Russians, thro' the mediation of the Courts of Vienna and Berlin, one of the first stipulations on the side of the Russians, was the immediate enlargement of the Sier Oberowski, their Ambassador, who is confined in the castle of Seven Towers, but the grand Seignior was totally averse to this proposal, being desirous of keeping the Ambassador as a hostage for the peace. The Prussian Resident, however, was bold enough to tell the Emperor, "that unless he used dispatch in releasing the Russian Ambassodor, he was afraid the Russians themselves (meaning the army) would very soon enter Constantinople and throw open the prison."

The present state of Poland is truly deplorable, from their crops being destroyed, and the large contributions furnished to the army, the country is left without corn, and the miserable inhabitants in a situation little short of starving.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated May 20.

"The distractions of this country daily encrease: The Princes of the Blood, and the Parliaments of France, are united in one firm body to oppose the tyranny of the Court; and the King of Spain, as a Prince of the House of Bourbon, is strongly attached to them, and determined to support them against the Court of Versailles, whose politics he detests, and whose plan he abhors, for re-establishing the Jesuits in France. The sine qua non of the Princes of the Blood is, the restitution to all the Parliaments of France of their original constitutional privileges; their freedom of debate, of annulling and registering of Parliamentary edicts, and the dismission for ever from the service of France the following regiments of foreign mercenaries, the strongest support of tyranny in France, and at this crisis the only foundation for absolute government: Cavalry, Royal Lorrain. Dragoons, Jarnac, Schonberg. Infantry, Swiss Guards, Alsace, Anhalt, Royal Italien, D'Erlach, Boccard, Sonnenberg, Castella, Waldner, Jenner, La Marck, Diesbach, Courten, Bulkeley, Clare, Dillon, Royal Snedois, Walsh, Berwick, Royal Baviere, Salis, Royal Corse, Nassau, Lochman, Royal Deux Ponts, Eptingen, Buttafaco. "Very disagreeable news arrived by a courier last night from Strasburgh, and this morning it is said the Empress Queen has complied with the request of our Court, to form a camp this summer of forty battalions near Brussels---not to attack France, but to stifle those sparks of liberty that begin to blaze in the different Parliaments of France."

Letters from Paris mention, that seven French Men of War are lately sailed for America.

Bets at the coffee-houses in this City are now ten to one, that Mr. Alderman Oliver will be chosen one of the Sheriffs on next Midsummer-day.

Wednesday, at a feast held by the Draper's Company, of which Mr. Alderman Oliver is Master, it was resolved unanimously to support his election for Sheriff the year ensuing; and of such other Gentlemen as should be joined with him.

A debauched young spendthrift, who has ruined his finances by every species of fashionable extravagance, was lately married to a young lady of very considerable fortune (who, in all probability, he will soon make a beggar of too) with no other ceremony of courtship, or prelude to their marriage, than [illegible] once at an assembly, and saying to her, "Will you have me, madam? You are a good fine girl: I'll have you by ---- will." To which the lady immediately consented, and were married the week following.

It is said that two waiters in a certain gaming house from St. James's, have acquired a capital of 5000l. each in the last four years, by advancing hundreds [illegible] over night to broken gamblers of quality, [illegible] guineas instead of pounds, when they have [illegible] day to recruit, after a run of ill luck.

Wednesday died at his house in Grosvenor street, the Right Honourable Anthony Ashley Cooper, Earl of Shaftesbury, Baron Ashley of Winborne St. Giles, Baron Cooper of Pawlet, and Baronet.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, May 24.

"Private letters from Petersburgh inform us, that when Count Alexis Orlow, commander in chief of the Russian forces in the Mediterranean, had his audience of leave of the Empress, in order to return to his post, her Imperial Majesty caused to be delivered to him, not only a considerable sum of money in specie, but also bills of exchange for upwards of 5,000,000 of roubles, for the support of the said naval forces; which, added to the contributions that the Russians levy in the islands they have subdued in the Archipelago, will enable them to live plentifully, and to advance their progress."

Letters from Norwich on Wednesday say, that on Monday last the populace rose a second time, on account of the high price of provisions, and did considerable mischief; the women in particular, were very outrageous, they stopped all the carts that were coming to market, and sold the contents at their own price, and returned the money to the owners.

Extract of a letter from Chatham, May 26.

"The following ships are arrived here from Portsmouth, in order to be paid off. The Cornwall of 74 guns, Bellona of 74, Dorsetshire of 70, St. Antonio of 64; the ships companies as soon as paid off, are to be turned over to the guardships.

JUNE 1. Yesterday there was a Levee at St. James's, and afterwards a Privy Council, at which most of the Great Officers of State assisted.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Earl Temple set out from his house in Pall Mall, for his seat at Stowe for the summer.

Thursday night the Marquis of Kildare, son of the Duke of Leinster, arrived in town from Ireland, and was yesterday at Court.

Yesterday morning the 15th regiment of foot, commanded by General Hotham, passed over Westminster Bridge from Kent; in Hyde Park they marched by in Review before his Majesty in their way to the North.

The following are said to be the terms of the treaty of peace, on the eve of being concluded, between Russia and the Porte, under the mediation of the Courts of Berlin and Vienna.

Belgrade, and all the forts on the Danube, to its mouths, to be ceded to Austria, as a barrier against the Turks. Bender ceded to the same power as a barrier against the Russians.

The immediate countries between the Neister and the Danube, to remain neutral, under the Princess and Wayvode.

The Danube to bound the Turkish dominions in Europe.

All the coast of the Black Sea, with its ports and harbours, comprehending those of the Crimea, ceded to Russia.

The Crim Tartars to become nominally independent. The Russians not to have the free navigation of the Bosphorus and Hellespont; and to evacuate the Archipelago and its isles.

The Throne of Poland to be declared vacant; and a free election permitted, by the withdrawing of all foreign troops, which might over-awe the Diet.

The Candidates for the Polish throne to be the elector of Saxony, the present King, and an Arch-duke.

Should the election not fall on the present King (which is generally believed it will not) he is to retain the title of King, to which will be annexed the Duchy of Penin.

The King of Prussia to cede his part of Silesia to Austria; and to receive Polish Prussia and Dantzick, in lieu of it, guarantied by Austria.

The only obstacle which retards the completion of the above treaty, is the neutrality of the countries between the Niester and Danube, which the house of Austria wish to erect into a sovereignty for a branch of their family.

The French and Spanish Courts, in the mean time, use all their influence at Vienna and Constantinople, to break a treaty, in which the King of Prussia is the empire between the contending parties.

France, whose finances will be in a good way, after an intended public bankruptcy, insinuates that a cession extorted from the Porte can never be secure. She therefore proposes to the Austrians to take a part in the war against Russia, and, upon that condition, to procure a voluntary cession of all the Turkish dominions to the east of the Danube, without any condition of neautrality. Spain, to induce the court of Vienna to this step, offers a large subsidy in money; whilst the French propose to enter Germany with an army.

The King of Prussia has not confined all his views to this treaty. That active genius, by a mixture of policy and force, is taking steps to form the United Provinces into a limited monarchy, for the family of Orange. The intrigues, on this important subject, have long since begun; and it is supposed, that the conspiracy for the dissolution of the Republic is already far advanced.

The Committee, for the defence of the Lord Mayor and Mr. Alderman Oliver, who sat on Thursday at the Mansion-House, have ordered prosecutions to be commenced against Sir Fletcher Norton.

Yesterday was married at St. Peter Le Poor, in Broad-street, John Julius Anguistine, Esq; to Mrs. Crockatt, widow of the late Charles Crockatt, Esq; of Old Bedlam.

Constantinople, March 8. The porte returns nothing but vague answers to all the propositions for an accommodation by the courts of Berlin and Vienna. The Resident of their Imperial Majesties had three private meetings with the Kaimacam within 15 days, the result of which was dispatched to Vienna and Berlin.

Elbing, April 17. We have received advice, that the Russian army, under Count Romanzow, is in full march. His magazine is immense. Poland is taxed to furnish him with 55,000 bushels of oats, 384 lasts of wheat, the last to consist of sixty measures, and 25,000 carriages.

All our advices confirm the happy event of the entire cessation of the plague. In consequence of which, after the first of next month, the Prussians will no longer subject travellers and merchandizes coming from Poland to perform quarentine. Nevertheless, the troops which formed the cordon for the above purpose are to continue.

Paris, April 30. Since the dispersion of the members composing the parliament of Paris, all law proceedings have been interrupted, and the injury thus sustained by the public is beyond expression. We promise ourselves, however, that matters will soon return into their former channel, as many attornies and counsellors have submitted to the new parliament, and engaged to resume their functions.

April 29. By a decree of the Parliament of the Court, the arret of the Parliament of Rouen of the 15th has been burnt by the hands of the common hangman, as a seditious libel, infringing upon the royal authority and the laws of the realm, as tending to render the King suspicious of the sentiments of the magistrates, to shake the loyalty of the people, to withdraw their obedience, and falsely attributed to the said Parliament.

College of Philadelphia, June 28.

[illegible] Day appointed for holding the Anniversary [illegible] MENT, in the College of this City, the Trustees [illegible] Hour past Nine o'Clock in the Morning, proceeded [illegible] paratus-Room to the public HALL, followed by the [illegible] Vice-Provost and Professors, with the different [illegible] gowns; the Band of Music, belonging to [illegible] ment, or Royal North-British Fuzileers, playing [illegible] tion.

After Prayers by the Provost, and an Anthem by some young Gentlemen, the rest of the Business was as follows, viz.

1. An elegant Latin Salutary Oration, by Mr. NATHAN RUMSEY.

2. An English Oration, on the Advantages arising from the Study of History; by Mr. JOHN M'DOWEL.

3. A Latin Syllogistic Dispute---"Utrum Juramentum a Latrone Vi et Metu extortum, obligat?" Mr. EBENEZER BROOKS was Respondent; and Messrs. CHARLES CROOK, HUGH MONTGOMERY and JOHN PARKS, Opponents.

4. A Piece of Music, by the Band.

5. An English Forensic Dispute---"Whether the Preeminence in Works of Genius and useful Arts, is to be ascribed to the Ancient, or Moderns?"----The Cause was opened, and the Nature of the Question accurately stated by Mr. JOHN CARSON, who concluded in favour of the Moderns. Mr. ARCHIBALD GAMBLE defended the Ancients with much Wit and Spirit; as did likewise Mr. JOHN PRINGLE with great Solidity and Strength of Argument. To them Mr. JOHN THOMAS replied, and endeavoured to establish the Superiority of the Moderns, by a full and careful Comparison of the present State of Arts, Sciences, and Improvements, with what is preserved of them from ancient Times.

6. An Ironical Panegyric on the Effects of Drunkenness, delivered with much Humour, by Mr. PATTERSON BELL. These Exercises, which concluded the Business of the Forenoon, were received with great Approbation, by a very numerous and polite Audience.

AFTERNOON.

1. An Anthem, accompanied by the Organ.

2. A Latin Oration, on the Antiquity and Use of the Study of Physic, by Mr. JONATHAN EASTON.

3. A Poem on Science, by Mr. BENJAMIN DUFFIELD.

4. An Oration, on the Effects of Ambition, by Mr. GEORGE NOARTH.

5. The following Degrees were then conferred, by the Provost, viz.

BACHELORS OF ARTS.

SAMUEL ARMOR, PATTERSON BELL, EBENEZER BROOKS, JOHN CARSON, CHARLES CROOKE, ROBERT DAVIDSON, ARCHIBALD GAMBLE, SAMUEL HANSON, JOHN M'DOWEL, HUGH MONTGOMERY, JOHN PRINGLE, NATHAN RUMSEY, JOHN THOMAS, and ISAAC WILSON.

MASTERS OF ARTS.

ROBERT ANDREWS, WILLIAM BINGHAM, BENJAMIN DUFFIELD, JONATHAN EASTON, ISAAC HUNT, DANIEL KUHN, GEORGE NOARTH, JONATHAN SERGEANT, and CHRISTIAN STREIGHT.

HONORARY DEGREES.

JOHN PARKS, Bachelor of Arts, Rev. JOHN SYMONTON, Master of Arts.

6. A Pastoral Dialogue, by Messrs. SAMUEL AMOR, and JOHN PARKS, with an Ode set to Music and sung by Mr. BANKSON, accompanied with the Organ, &c.

7. The following Medical Degrees were then conferred by the Provost.

BACHELORS OF PHYSIC.

BENJAMIN ALISON, JONATHAN EASTON, JOHN KUHN, FREDERICK KUHN, BODO OTTO, ROBERT POTTINGER, and WILLIAM SMITH.

8. A Piece of Instrumental Music.

9. Meſſrs. JONATHAN ELMER, of New-Jerſey, JONATHAN POTTS, of Pottſgrove, Pennſylvania, JAMES TILTON, of Dover, and NICHOLAS WAY, of Wilmington, then preſented themſelves, agreeable to the Rules of the College, to defend in Latin the Diſſertations printed for their Degree of Doctor in Phyſic.

Mr. ELMER's Piece---"De Cauſis et Remediis Sitis in Febribus"---was impugned by Dr. KUHN, Profeſſor of Botany and Materia Medica.

Mr. POTTS's---"De Febribus intermittentibus perniciosum Tertianis"---was impugned by Dr. MORGAN, Profeſſor of the Theory and Practice of Phyſic.

Mr. TILTON's----"De Hydrope"----was impugned by Dr. SHIPPEN, Profeſſor of Anatomy.

Mr. WAY's---"De Variolarum Inſitione"---was impugned by Dr. RUSH, Profeſſor of Chymiſtry.

Each of theſe Candidates having judiciouſly anſwered the Objections made to ſome Parts of their Diſſertations, the Provoſt conferred upon them the Degree of Doctor in Phyſic with great Solemnity, as the higheſt Mark of literary Honour, which they could receive in their Profeſſion.

10. The Valedictory Oration was then delivered by Mr. ROBERT DAVIDSON, in a very pathetic and ſtriking Manner, after which the Provoſt gave his CHARGE to the Graduates, wherein he obſerved, among other Things---"That it is by ſlow Degrees the Sciences are eſtabliſhed in any young Country---that there is, perhaps, ſcarce an Inſtance, where any Seminary of Learning, altho' patronized and ſupported by Princes, hath, in the ſame Space of Time, come to equal Perfection with the College of Philadelphia, altho' at firſt begun only by a few private Gentlemen---that he had found it Seventeen Years ago, juſt in its Infancy---that amidſt the Tumults of War, and many other Circumſtances unfavourable to Literature, it had, during that Period, been conſtantly growing in Uſefulneſs and Reputation---that numerous and illuſtrious Benefactors had been raiſed up for its Support---that all the Branches of Science were now profeſſed and taught in it, on ſo liberal a Foundation, that it would be entitled not merely to the Name of a College but of an Univerſity in any Part of the World------that not only Profeſſorſhips in the Languages, Mathematics, Philoſophy, &c. but in the different Branches of Phyſic, were eſtabliſhed in it---and that this Day ſaw the whole Plan complete, as ſeveral Gentlemen who had been regularly educated in the Study of Phyſic, and admitted to their firſt Degree, in this Seminary, were now, after three Years reputable and ſucceſsful Practice, and after giving convincing Specimens of their Abilities, thought worthy of being admitted to the Degree of Doctor, the higheſt Honour belonging to their Profeſſion. He added an earneſt Exhortation to all the Graduates, ſo to acquit themſelves thro' Life, as ſtill to reflect freſh Luſtre on the Place of their Education----referring further to what might be ſaid by the Gentlemen, that was to give the Medical Charge.

Dr. MORGAN, who was appointed to that Part of the Buſineſs, entered into a particular Account of the Branches of Study, which the Medical Gentlemen ought to proſecute with unremitted Diligence, if they wiſhed to be eminent in their Profeſſion; laying down ſome uſeful Rules for an hononurable Practice in the Diſcharge of it. He obſerved, that "the Oath which was preſcribed by Hippocrates to his Diſciples had been generally adopted in Univerſities, and Schools of Phyſic, on the like Occaſions; but that laying aſide the Form of Oaths, this College, which is of a free Spirit, wiſhed only to bind its Sons and Graduates by the Ties of Honour and Gratitude; and therefore he begged Leave to impreſs it upon thoſe who had received the diſtinguiſhed Degree of Doctors----that as they were among the foremoſt Sons of the Inſtitution, and the Birthday of Medical Honours, in this new World, had roſe upon them with auſpicious Luſtre, they would, in all their Practice, conſult the Safety of their Patients, the Good of the Community, and the Dignity of their Profeſſion, ſo as that the Seminary, from which they derived their Titles in Phyſic, might never have Cauſe to be aſhamed of them." The different Exercises gave general Satisfaction, and the whole Buſineſs of the Day (which was conducted with great Decorum) was concluded with Prayer by the Vice-Provoſt.

CHARLES-TOWN,

ON Wedneſday the 4th ult. his Excellency Governor Hutchinſon, of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, made a Speech to both Houſes, in which he told them, "That it was with pleaſure he now informed them, that the Accounts which he thought it his Duty to tranſmit to England the laſt Fall, of a general Diſpoſition in the People, to promote Order and due Submiſſion to Government, gave the greateſt Satisfaction to his Majeſty, who had nothing more at Heart, than to ſee his Subjects in a State of Happineſs, Peace, and Proſperity." The Council, in their Anſwer, "Thanked his Excellency for tranſmitting to his Majeſty ſo favourable an Account of the good Diſpoſition of the People, &c." But the Houſe of Repreſentatives, not quite ſo courtly Complaiſant, and without returning him Thanks for his Speech, tells him, "That he muſt be very ſenſible that the People of the Province have always been diſpoſed to promote Order and due Submiſſion to conſtitutional Authority, and therefore they humbly conceived there never was a Time when he might not have been warranted to repreſent them in ſuch a Point of Light, as would have given his Majeſty the greateſt Satisfaction in that Regard:----That it was true, the People have been, and are ſtill, with abundant Reaſon, diſcontented with the Acts of Parliament for raiſing a Revenue in America, without the free Conſent of their own Repreſentatives; and with other Regulations which they juſtly apprehend to be not only Oppreſſive but Deſtructive to their conſtitutional and Charter Rights: This Uneaſineſs has been groſly miſrepreſented by the Enemies of the Province, as a Mark of diſaffection to his Majeſty's Government."

We hear from Savannah in Georgia, that on Thurſday the 11th inſtant, at ſeven o'Clock in the Morning, his Excellency the Governor, with his Family, ſet out for Cockſpur, and about nine embarked on board the Ship Governor Wright, Captain Hall, bound to London. On his Excellency's ſetting off he was ſaluted with ſeveral Vollies of Small Arms by Sir Patrick Houſtoun's Company of Light Infantry, who were drawn up on the Bay, and when oppoſite the Fort by a Diſcharge of the Cannon.

Thurſday arrived here from Philadelphia, the Brig Charles-Town Packet, Samuel Wright, Maſter, in whom came Paſſenger, Mr. John Pringle, Son of Robert Pringle, Eſq.

In the Brig Prince of Wales, Capt. Moore, from Philadelphia, which arrived the ſame Day, came Mr. Iſaac Legare, and Mr. Benjamin Cattell.

Sunday ſailed for Philadelphia, the Schooner Wambaw, with Henry Laurens, Eſq;

The ſame Day the Ship Carolina Packet, Capt. Harford, arrived here from London, by whom we hear that his Excellency Lord Charles-Greville Montague was to ſail for New-York, in one of his Majeſty's Ships, a few Days after him; ſo that his Excellency may be expected here in a few Weeks. In the Carolina Packet came Paſſenger, Mr. William Rugely.

Yeſterday put in here in Diſtreſs, having ſprung a Leak, the Ship St. James, Paul Surman, Maſter, from Old Harbour in Jamaica, bound to London.

By the Honourable

WILLIAM BULL, Esquire,

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the said Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Complaint has been lately made to me by the Catabaw Indians, that sundry Persons have molested them in their hunting Grounds, and particularly that about the 12th Day of June last, divers Persons, to the Number of Twenty-six, went to the Camp of a Party of their Nation, destroyed their Skins, and beat them very severely, all which is contrary to the Agreement stipulated in a Treaty for the Preservation and Continuance of a firm and perfect Peace and Friendship between His Majesty and the several Indian Tribes therein named, which was ratified at a Congress, held at Augusta, in the Province of Georgia, on the Tenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, by their Excellencies James Wright, Esq; Governor of Georgia, Arthur Dobbs, Esq; Governor of North-Carolina, Thomas Boone, Esq; Governor of South-Carolina, the Honourable Francis Fauquier, Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia, and John Stuart, Esq; Agent and Superintendant of Southern Indian Affairs, and the several Indian Chiefs who were authorized and empowered by their respective Nations to ratify and conclude the same; by the second and third Articles of which Treaty, it was concluded and agreed, that His Majesty's Subjects, and the aforesaid several Nations of Indians, should for ever thereafter, be looked upon as one People, and the Governors and Superintendant did engage, for themselves and their Successors, as far as they could, that they would always give due Attention to the Interest of the Indians, and will be ready on all Occasions to do them full and ample Justice: And by the fourth Article of the same Treaty, the Catabaw Head Men and Warriors, did in Confirmation of an Agreement before that Time entered into with the White People, declare, that they would remain satisfied with the Tract of Land of Fifteen Miles Square, a Survey of which by their Consent, and at their Request, was then already begun, and the respective Governors and Superintendant, on their Parts, did promise and engage, that the aforesaid Survey should be compleated, and that the Catabaws should not in any Respect, be molested by any of the King's Subjects, within the said Lines, but should be indulged in the usual Manner, of Hunting elsewhere; which Privilege is further confirmed to them by an Act of Assembly of this Province, passed the 23d Day of June, 1769, intitled, "An "ACT for the Preservation of Deer, and to prevent the Mischiefs "arising from hunting at unseasonable Times," as it is provided that nothing therein shall extend, or be construed to extend, to Deprive the Indians in Amity with this Province, of any Rights or Privileges, they are entitled unto, by Virtue of any Treaty subsisting between them and this Province. AND WHEREAS it may be attended with bad Consequences to the People of this Province, if such Outrages are not remedied, and for the future prevented. I THEREFORE have thought fit, by the Advice of his Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby strictly requiring all His Majesty's Subjects to be careful not to Molest the said Indians, in their Hunting, or in any other Way injure them in their Rights, reserved to them by the said Treaty and Act of Assembly. AND I do hereby Require and Command, all Judges, Justices, Constables and other Peace Officers, to be Diligent in preserving to the said Indians, their several Rights and Privileges, reserved to them by the said Treaty and Act of Assembly, and to take proper Measures, to bring to due Punishment, any Person who shall presume to Offend contrary thereto.

LANDS FOR SALE,

By public Outcry, at the Vendue-House in Charles-Town, on Tuesday the 5th Day of September next, at 12 o'Clock.

A Tract on ACCABEE, one of the most beautifully situated country seats in this province, not more than seven miles from Charles-Town by land, and about the same distance by water. The whole contains four hundred acres, three hundred of which are in oak and pine wood, the rest in pasture under fence. The dwelling-house on it is of brick, with a large hall and parlour on the ground floor, and a passage and stairs in an entry between both; there are four bed-chambers above them, exclusive of the garret which has two unfinished rooms. The cellar is very convenient for a kitchen, being built and used for that purpose. On the south front of the house is a new piazza, which overlooks an unimproved garden quite down to the delightful river on which the whole is situated. Opposite to the house and garden, the river is computed to be upwards of a mile wide, and abounds with a variety of fish, oysters, &c. As there is plenty of wood, bricks may be made to advantage, and the number now at the landing will be a sufficient recommendation of the quality of the clay, &c. Vast quantities of lime may likewise be burnt, the shell banks being very contiguous to the landings, and the wood not far to cart.

A Tract at STONO, St. Paul's parish, butting and bounding, eastward and southward on lands belonging to the estate of the late Robert McKewn, Esq; and lands of James Stanyarne, Esq; westward and northward on lands of Mr. Isaac Nichols, deceased, and Algernon Wilson, Esq

This Tract contains four hundred acres, and is principally adapted for the culture of indico, corn, &c. the soil being loose and fertile, it will also answer for most European grain; about seventy acres has been cleared, and a tolerable plantation house on it, but being rented out to several tenants, shoemakers, &c. it has been much abused, and at present is out of repair. It is well timbered with oak and pine, and its distance from the public landing at Friend Town, scarce exceeds two miles.

Another Tract at STONO, about a mile nearer the public landing than the above, containing by a re-survey three hundred and seventy-five acres, butting and bounding north-eastwardly on land belonging to William Elliott, Esq; (called Winners,) north-westwardly on land belonging to the estate of Robert McKewn, Esq; south-eastwardly on lands belonging to Frederick Grimke, Esq; and south-westwardly on lands belonging to Charles Elliott, Esq. This is a very compact tract, fit for indico, corn and rice; a great part of this small tract is in wood of oak, hickory, and pine, and affords good cooper stuff for any of the adjacent rice plantations. On it is a pretty good dwelling-house, now rented to Mr. Joseph Dandridge.

A long credit will be given, if desired, paying interest from the delivery of the titles.
